

The Sinclair
Broadcasting
decision to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is clearly direct
electioneering by
the media
corporation and as such, is against federal election
law.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is the duty of the FCC to make sure any infractions of relevant laws are not overlooked, but
pursued actively on behalf of the public interest.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
